GLOBE CITY ELECTION

The Silver Belt believes that in the coming spring election, which will be the first held in the city of Globe, party lines should be eliminated and that only those citizens who would make the most efficient, the most faithful and the most desirable officials should be selected for the various offices. A campaign conducted for civic purity and municipal reforms which will be of unquestioned benefit to the city at large will be far better and make for greater good to all than one conducted on party lines, which should have no place in an election of this kind.

The Silver Belt will welcome communications from its readers as to the coming city election, suggestions as to the most desirable candidates for mayor and councilmen and as to needed reforms and improvements, and will gladly publish these, hoping that in this manner the best interests of the city of Globe, irrespective of party politics, will be subserved.

Judging from latest Ohio reports, Secretary Taft is justified in hurrying home. Joseph Benson Forsaker is not the sort of politician who gives up without a lively fight.

It's all right for the special agents of the interior department to go after the big corporations, but they ought to know better than to attempt to reform federal officials, especially when the latter are ex-rough riders.

While it is gratifying to learn that in transmission money cannot carry disease, there would be little danger of an epidemic from that source at the present time. We are now waiting for expert judgment on scrip.

Globe, Ariz., has suffered comparatively little from the copper slump. The big companies are going right ahead with development work, and the pay roll is long enough to keep things moving actively in all lines of business. El Paso Herald. Thanks, awfully, for the boost, which is not exaggerated in the least. The pay roll is certainly a long one. It has lasted a week already and bids fair to last a week longer.

FLOWERS FOR THE FAIR

The United States grand jury at Prescott convened and adjourned without returning an indictment and United States Attorney Alexander told Prescott that "its citizens are to be congratulated on the absence of crime." The captain attributes the unprecedented occurrence "first, to the high class of citizenship of northern Arizona and, second, to the rapid and uncompromising prosecution of those accused of crime since my administration." Biff! Bang! Bouquets! But we rejoice in the modesty of the intrepid captain in tossing flowers to the people of northern Arizona first before smothering himself under the sweet-smelling petals. Such overwhelming modesty, especially in a federal official, makes even the shy shrinking violet look like a brazen-faced sunflower.

But it must be remembered that only a few forms of crime are prosecuted by the government even in a territory, all of them being for violation of federal statutes, and as to the high class of citizenship in northern Arizona—and this is said without in any manner wishing to convey a knock—it will be recalled that it is the "high class citizen" of this country against whom federal prosecutions are being directed at the present time. BANKS SHOULD RENEW LOANS TO BUSINESS HOUSES AND HELP CONDITIONS SAYS BOSTON BANKER

DON'T RUSH FIRMS FOR MONEY, SAYS PRESIDENT GASTON OF THE NATIONAL SHAWMUT BANK

Letter Containing Excellent Advice Is Sent to All Customer Banks of the Boston Institution—Concerns Solvent, But Some Are Short of Cash.

The letter which the National Shawmut Bank of Boston has sent to its customer banks and trust companies throughout the country, which we print below, is admirable in its wise recommendation that all financial institutions at this time of stringency in the money market should be considerate and accommodating in dealing with those who have notes maturing, and whose loans are subject to call. A more steady and easing suggestion for the peculiar emergency has not been made, and if generally adopted it would put a different face on business. Banks and trust companies can make the process of liquidation of business very much easier and less costly if they will extend matured notes in whole or in part.

Colonel William A. Gaston, president of the National Shawmut bank, writes this letter to the editor of the Herald: "The chief present danger in the financial crisis is the difficulty that the solvent business house finds in borrowing new money or collecting its bills receivable, which under ordinary circumstances would be paid promptly. If such solvent concerns are forced unnecessarily by the banks to pay their notes, bankruptcies or receiverships, which will be of widespread and serious consequence, are reasonably sure to follow."

"The National Shawmut Bank, therefore, has written the enclosed letter, which was sent out tonight to its 700 customer banks and trust companies throughout the United States, but largely throughout New England, who are loaners of money, asking them to assist solvent merchants by not forcing payments of notes when payment means ruin."

"As you know, many kinds of industrial enterprises in Massachusetts have gone on half time within the last few days, and others have closed down absolutely, not because these businesses are insolvent, but because they are unable to get money under the circumstances."

"My purpose in sending you a copy of the enclosed letter is because I know how much you desire to avert further distress, and how much you, personally, are interested in the restoration of confidence, and in the belief that if this action were known publicly it might stimulate other large financial interests to follow a similar course, and thereby bring to merchants everywhere a feeling of relief and confidence in the future, which in my opinion is the most essential and necessary thing at this moment. Very truly yours, "WILLIAM A. GASTON."

Bank's Letter

The National Shawmut bank is by far the largest banking institution in New England, having been formed through a consolidation of over twenty Boston banks. Its capital and surplus amount to $8,300,000 and its total assets are $70,000,000. The letter sent out yesterday is as follows:

"Dear Sirs: In a period of such stringency of the money market as we are now experiencing, it is of the utmost importance that the banks shall renew, as far as it lies in their power, the notes which may be maturing of merchants and manufacturers and others who are worthy of credit."

"In many cases, it is utterly impossible for perfectly solvent business houses either to borrow new money or to collect their receivables, which ordinarily are paid, or to sell their merchandise, and, if they are forced unnecessarily by the banks to pay their notes, bankruptcies or receiverships are sure to follow."

Will Restore Confidence

"In order to restore business affairs to a normal state, a general liquidation of business must take place. This, we believe, every merchant is attempting to do to the extent of his ability, but the banks and trust companies must, in our opinion, do their share by extending maturing notes in whole or in part. The fewer the number of solvent merchants who are forced to pay their debts, where it means hardship, the fewer the failures, and, consequently, the sooner a restoration of confidence and a normal condition of the money market will ensue."

"We therefore urge you, as far as is in your power, to help the serious mercantile situation in this way."

"Very truly yours,

"National Shawmut Bank,
"WILLIAM A. GASTON,
"President."

NOTICE

Gila Valley, Globe & Northern R. R.
Account taking of inventory for unclaimed freight sale our Globe freight station will be closed Saturday, November 23, 1907. L. H. LANDIS, General Agent.

Captain Joe that there is a high class of citizenship in Northern Arizona—and also in Southern Arizona, Eastern Arizona and Western Arizona, with probably a few scattered over the line into New Mexico, old Mexico, California, Nevada and Utah.

SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Enjoyable Dance.—The dance given Wednesday evening at Maurel hall was a very enjoyable occasion. There were seventy-five couples present and the music for an excellent dance program was furnished by a string orchestra.

Train Was Held.—The passenger train on the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern was an hour and a half late last evening, as it was held at Bowie until the arrival of the Southern Pacific train from the east.

Freight Inventory.—The Gila Valley freight depot will remain closed tomorrow in order that an inventory may be taken of unclaimed freight. There will be a public sale of unclaimed freight as soon as the list of articles has been legally advertised.

Italian Couple Weds.—Giuseppe Decarolis and Benedetta de Lollo were united in marriage yesterday forenoon at the courthouse by Justice of the Peace Thomas. Both are members of the Globe Italian colony.

North Globe Improvements.—William Mill Williams is remodeling the front of his store building in North Globe. The windows will be of heavy plate glass framed in structural iron and the iron is heavy enough to support another story to the building. The window boxes will be ideal and will afford a large and varied display of general merchandise. Mr. Williams recently expended $5,000 improving his building and premises.

Arrested for Fraud.—On the charge of having fraudulently conspired property for the purpose of defrauding their creditors, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams who have been conducting a boarding house at Copper Hill, were in Judge Thomas' court yesterday. The complaint was made by E. D. Reed, manager, creditors to the extent of $306. It is alleged that the defendants shipped personal property valued at about $1,000, to some point in New Mexico. The boarding house was recently turned over to Sultan brothers, who are also large creditors. Attorney George R. Hill has been retained as special prosecutor and the defense is being looked after by Attorney George K. French.

GOOD WORDS FOR FORMER GOV. BRODIE

The St. Paul Pioneer Press of November 14 gives considerable space to Colonel A. O. Brodie, publishing a first-class likeness of him and the principal positions he has held. The Press says:

Lieutenant Colonel A. O. Brodie, the present adjutant general of the department of Dakota, is an officer with a record which reflects nothing but credit upon himself both in the military service and public life. A graduate of West Point, he resigned his commission after a few years during which he saw much frontier service. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, Colonel Brodie again entered the service as senior major of the rough riders. From 1902 until 1906, Colonel Brodie was the governor of the territory of Arizona. On February 24, 1905, he again entered the military service, accepting a commission in the regular army. Colonel Brodie will retire on account of age six years from yesterday.

Van Wageningen makes a specialty of tinting. Satisfaction our motto.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often does turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow them to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good, reliable and safe digestant like KODOL for dyspepsia. KODOL is the best remedy known today for heartburn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords prompt relief. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.

DOLLARS FOR YOU; DOLLARS FOR US

OUR FIRST ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SALE

Opens in a blaze of bewildering bargains this morning. Cut prices prevail throughout this great home furnishing house. Money may be tight, but the Thanksgiving sale prices will untie the strings to your pocketbooks, and make you glad that you invested. No such prices were ever quoted on reliable furniture and general furnishings. We specialize today on articles that should satisfy your Thanksgiving wants. Don't miss this opportunity to furnish your house for the holiday season.

DISHES--GLASSWARE

In this department—our china shop—we take great pride. It is the biggest thing of the kind in Arizona. No larger or better assortment of dishes in the southwest. Many pretty and exclusive patterns and a large open stock to select from. Full sets or single pieces, just as you may desire. The prices are of the kind that will make you give thanks. Everything in glassware, including bar glasses such as beer and whisky. These elegant goods are all in the big Thanksgiving sale now on. This is an opportunity of a lifetime.

RANGES AND STOVES

In no retail store under the shining sun is there a more varied or representative stock of ranges and stoves shown than right under our roof. As Thanksgiving time approaches the housewife's interest naturally centers on a good range. Goodness extends from the lowest priced to the highest—$20 to $175—and we haven't a stove in the house that is not FULLY GUARANTEED. Cooking stoves range from $7 and up.

Brass Beds.—The most handsome line in the city. Rich, massive, elegant. Prices on this line range from $20.00 to $85.00.

NOTHING TO PAY FOR BUT THE GOODS

Out of the high-priced rent district; no gaudy demonstration; no expensive overtures to the public; straight, plain business methods prevail here; our great aim is now and always has been to see how much real value we can give you for your dollar. And this sale means the saving of many dollars to McNeil patrons. It means perfect satisfaction, as better and more reliable goods cannot be found in the country. We invite comparison and solicit a share of your valued patronage.

AFTER DINNER CHAIRS

What is more pleasant to anticipate after the Thanksgiving dinner than a comfortable rocking chair? We can supply this demand in a more satisfactory way than any house in Arizona. Drop into this department and you'll conclude that we purchased for the entire territory. Rock-oak to the plain little sewing chairs. They come in wickers, polished oak and mission styles, and are quoted at prices never before named in the history of Globe. See them.

KITCHEN FURNITURE

The queen of this department is the always convenient Kitchen Cabinet, a piece of furniture that no good housekeeper cares to be without. It affords in neat and compact form a place for everything and in the matter of saving will pay for itself in a year. Inexpensive, invaluable. We carry all kinds of Kitchen Tables and our line of Kitchen Safes is equally as complete. All of these goods in the anniversary Thanksgiving special sale.

Iron Beds.—By far the largest assortment in the city. Enamelled in all the popular tints. We have a line of good beds from $3 up.
